

York Supervisors Seek Applicants for the York County Arts Commission

Yorktown, April 18— The York County Board of Supervisors is currently seeking applications for future vacancies from County citizens interested in serving on the York County Arts Commission. The York County Arts Commission serves as an advisory body to the Board of Supervisors for the cultural arts. The Commission meets in October, January, June (if required), and July.

York County citizens interested in applying for appointment to the York County Arts Commission may obtain an application at the County Administrator's Office at 224 Ballard Street in Yorktown, or by calling 890-3320. Applications may also be obtained and filed by using the County website. Upon entering the website www.yorkcounty.gov, click on Boards and Commissions and click on "Submit an Application."

###